

Christmas at Waddesdon Manor

Christmas is a wonderful time to visit Waddesdon. From the huge beautifully lit Christmas trees that greet you at the door, to the sumptuous Christmas decorations inside, the traditional seat of the Rothschild dynasty is a real festive treat.

Our day will run as follows:

- 12.00noon Arrival at the beautiful Five Arrows Hotel on the Waddesdon estate, to enjoy a traditional two course Christmas lunch (vegetarian option available - please also notify us of any special dietary requirements on the booking form), including glass of wine
- From 1.30pm Time to browse Waddesdon's Christmas market. Eighty hand-selected exhibitors all housed in charming wooden chalets. The stalls offer an exciting variety of high-quality, unique gifts, decorations, crafts and festive foods.
- 3.00pm Timed entry to visit the decorated rooms of the Manor. This year the house decorations feature festive displays, sparkling trees and sumptuous decorations inspired by the Manor's many treasures, from famous portraits to exquisite porcelain.
- 4.00pm As the light begins to fade, we will make our way out to the gardens. From dusk, the Manor's façade and grounds come to life with a new winter light trail, inspired by the objects, architecture and gardens of Waddesdon. The light trail playfully combines colour, movement, and sound.

There will also be time for more last-minute Christmas shopping in the festively decorated Gift Shop, before we depart at 5.00pm.

Excursion Cost: £85 per person for National Trust Members, £105 if non-NT

(please specify on Booking Form if you are an NT member, and bring your Membership card with you on the day)
