

Another thrillingly creative production from The Bridge Theatre

Bridge Theatre - Start time 7.30pm

Why would you go into the woods?

*To sell the cow... To visit mother... To see the king... To lift the spell

A rare chance to see Stephen Sondheim and James Lapine's audacious musical performed with thrilling creativity at the unique Bridge Theatre.

A witch's curse inflicted on the Baker (Jamie Parker) and his wife (Katie Brayben) for the sins of his father can only be broken if they bring her Cinderella's shoe, Rapunzel's golden hair, Red Ridinghood's coat and the milky white cow so dear to Jack (of the beanstalk). As the couple venture into the unknown, their story collides with the host of characters in the woods.

With an exquisite score and ingenious lyrics, 'Into The Woods' intertwines the Brothers Grimm's most famous fairy tales to reckon with the realities of 'happy ever after'.
